Corporate Confession of Sin | Andrew Nichols, Executive Director

Almighty God, we are unworthy to come into Your presence because of our many sins. Yet You are a merciful God, a loving and favorable Father to all who turn to You. We humbly ask You, for the sake of Christ Your Son, to show mercy to us and forgive us all our offenses. Forgive the sins of our youth and the sins of our old age. By Your Spirit, O God, take possession of our hearts, so that, not only the actions of our lives but also the words of our mouths and the smallest thought of our minds, may be guided and governed by You. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with You and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and forever.

John Knox, Scottish Reformer

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God
Martin Luther arr. Dan Forrest

A mighty Fortress is our God, a bulwark never failing. Our helper He amid the flood of mortal ills prevailing. For still our ancient foe now seeks to work us woe. His wrath and power are great and armed with cruel hate, on earth is not His equal.

Did we in our own strength confide, our striving would be losing. Were not the right man on our side, the Man of God's own choosing. Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He; Lord Sabaoth His name, from age to age the same, and He must win the battle.

And though this world, with devils filled, should threaten to undo us, we will not fear, for God hath willed His truth to triumph through us. The prince of darkness grim, we tremble not for him; His rage we can endure, for lo his doom is sure, one little word shall fell him.

That Word above all earthly powers, no thanks to them abideth. The Spirit and the gifts are ours through Him who with us sideth. Let goods and kindred go, this mortal life also; the body they may kill; God's truth abideth still, His kingdom is forever!

Doxology | Song of praise in response to God's favor

WHAT IS REFORMATION SUNDAY?

We are glad that you have chosen to worship with us this Lord's Day. Today we celebrate the Great Reformation when Martin Luther launched a gospel movement by nailing his Ninety-Five Theses to the door of the Wittenberg Cathedral on October 31, 1517. Why should this matter to us, and why should we celebrate the Reformation? On Reformation Sunday, we rejoice in the recovery of the biblical gospel of grace. Simply put, "Christ saves sinners" (1 Timothy 1:15). We do not and cannot add anything to our salvation. Seeing that Jesus saves us from beginning to end by His grace alone makes proud people humble, rude people grateful, and despairing people joyful. The Reformation reminds us that Christianity is more of a grace-filled journey than a moral code. It is more of a love affair than a religious exercise. It is receiving a gift with open hands instead of keeping rules with clenched fists. Pray that our church would never tire of trumpeting God's grace and that our Lord would unleash the transforming power of His gospel that brings times of refreshment from His presence. Don't let this Reformation Sunday pass without praying this for yourself, your family, your church, and our world!

Semper Reformanda!

KINGDOM CITIZENS

The church was never meant to avoid politics, but to engage in the political sphere on behalf of King Jesus.

What does it mean to embrace a political theology that looks more like the Kingdom of God and less like the kingdom of this world?

WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE A RELATIONSHIP WITH JESUS?

The Bible says, "If you declare with your mouth, 'Jesus is Lord,' and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved."

YOU CAN PRAY THIS SIMPLE PRAYER:

Dear Jesus, please forgive me. I no longer want to live life without you. Come into my life as my Lord and Savior. Thank you for living the life I could never live and dying in my place on the cross. I want the hope of heaven both now and forever.
